National Road Interpretative Signs Unveiled

Cambridge, Ohio (December 8) - During a reception hosted by the Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau recently, two of the four Ohio National Road Interpretative signs Guernsey County will receive were unveiled. Cyndie Gerken, president of the Ohio National Road Association, unveiled the Cambridge sign with the help of Paul Sherry and the Peters Creek Bridge sign with assistance from Ed Wagstaff. At a later date, Guernsey County will also receive interpretative signs for the Salt Fork Bridge and the pike town of Old Washington. Pictured here are members of Project Pride who created the Historic Downtown Cambridge Walking Tour brochure, the Guernsey County National Road Driving Tour Brochure and helped sponsor the Peters Creek Bridge Sign.
