

Ohio National Road Association to Unveil Interpretive Sign in Norwich

CAMBRIDGE, OH (August 9, 2011) - The public is invited to the unveiling of an Ohio National Road Association Interpretive Sign at the Old Stone House Nursery in Norwich, Ohio on Thursday, August 25, 2011 at 3:00pm with a reception to follow. The Old Stone House Nursery is located at 10405 Main Street (take Norwich Drive off US 40).

The event is sponsored by Taylor Landscaping and the Old Stone House Nursery in partnership with the Ohio National Road Association, and with consideration from the Village of Norwich, John & Annie Glenn Museum Foundation, the Zanesville-Muskingum County Convention & Visitors Bureau, the Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau and Joe Clark Photography.

To confirm your attendance or for further information about this event, please contact the Old Stone House Nursery at (740) 872-3587. To learn more about the Historic National Road and other upcoming unveilings, visit the Ohio National Road Association's web site at www.ohionationalroad.org.

#