An All – American Road National Scenic Byway

PRESS RELEASE

Date: February 19, 2009

From: Ohio National Road Association

Ohio National Road Association (ONRA) is pleased to announce the 4th Annual Six-State Historic National Road Yard Sale. The event begins Wednesday, May 27, 2009 and will continue through Sunday, May 31, 2009,

Whether you are looking for antiques or gently used items, household items or garden items, furniture or toys, produce or clothes, you will surely be able to find everything you need or want. Each year, throughout yard sale's length in Ohio, the participation rate has continued to rise. ONRA is hoping to make this year's trip an educational opportunity for the many byway travelers and sellers on the Historic National Road as ONRA members will also be traveling (and shopping...) and passing out our many resources concerning the grand history of the National Road in Ohio. This will enable ONRA to continue to promote the many historic treasures and splendor of the Road while providing a fun five day shopping extravaganza. The yard sale is a great tool to draw attention not only to our organization, but more importantly, to the Road.
