ZANESVILLE -- The Ohio National Road Association unveiled two new interpretive signs Oct. 21 in Zanesville.

The signs, commemorating the history of Zanesville and the Y Bridge, were the 18th and 19th to be installed along the Historic National Road as part of a 60-sign project across the state.

The Zanesville sign is on Main Street in front of the Muskingum County Courthouse and relates the city's early history.

Among those on hand for the unveiling ceremony were Muskingum County Commissioners Steve Strauss, Jim Porter and Jerry Lavy, ONRA president Dean Ringle, Zanesville Mayor Howard Zwelling, Zanesville Chamber of Commerce president Tom Poorman and vice president Kelly
